For all non-standard standfitting, it is compulsory to submit the technical documentation required by the Expo Centre's Technical Regulations for each specific case. Generally speaking, this is a technical design report, submitted within and no later than 5 days before the start of set-up and standfitting work and a structural adequacy certificate, signed and stamped by an authorized technician (architect/engineer, member of the appropriate association), the original of which must be consigned within and no later than 24 hours before the start of the exhibition.

If a Participant has not submitted the aforementioned documents within the set time, or has sent incomplete or inadequate certification, the expo centre's Operations Department will proceed directly, with staff commissioned by the Department, and the cost of certification, including any applicable surcharge, will be charged to the Participant in whose name the stand has been rented.

permit stand set-up and fitting to either the participating company or any stand fitter appointed by it.

In that case the Organizer, as well as withholding any deposit already paid, and claiming the entire sum agreed on for participation, as indicated in the countersigned proposal of participation, will consider the exhibit area free and it may be allocated to others.

Six months before the exhibition, the stand set-up and fitting work timetable will be available on the official website at page info fitting ; Italian Exhibition Group reserves the right to change or modify hours or days due to technical reasons, modifications will be promptly communicated at the same page.

Extensions of working hours on the last installation day must be approved by the Operations Department and will only be granted in exceptional cases. The costs of these services are specified in the "services" section in the reserved area.

Participants who need more fitting days may request them in the reserved area (the service is available on payment).

The pre-fitting timetable will be available on the official website at page <http://en.enada.it/exhibitors/dates-and-stand-fitting-times>; Italian Exhibition Group reserves the right to change or modify hours or days for technical reasons, modifications will be promptly communicated at the same URL.

It must also be noted that during set-up and standfitting days the use of cranes or truck-mounted cranes for unloading goods in the expo halls is prohibited; these vehicles can be used in a previous period (precise dates will be announced by Rimini Expo Centre Operations Department in the "reserved area" on the exhibition's Website).

Modifications to or change of exhibition areas must be authorised by the Organizer and carried out at the applicant's expense.

Participants who have not occupied their area or started standfitting work by noon on the eve of the inauguration will be considered to have withdrawn to all intents and purposes, and, without prejudice to further damages, sanctions set out in the Chapter I art. 5 letter D) herein will be applied.

Art. 3 – CONTRACTORS and PROVISION OF SERVICES

For stand fitting work, including the rental of any material required for this purpose, Italian Exhibition Group S.p.A. reserves the right to appoint one or more companies as "authorized contractors", whose names will be opportunely communicated to participants, along with the rates for their services.

These services are regulated and invoiced, but not provided directly, by Italian Exhibition Group S.p.A., who therefore does not assume any responsibility regarding any inefficiency or problems with the provision of said services.

The services can be ordered by means of an e-commerce platform accessible with a password, which is sent by Italian Exhibition Group S.p.A. in the months prior to the expo. It must be noted that, when purchasing or ordering a service, the general conditions for their provision (always attached with service details) are intended as being accepted.

It must be remembered that the conditions of provision may be subject to variation, due to the technical nature of the individual service offered.

Payment of the aforementioned services is disciplined as per Chap. II Part 1 art 3 of the Exhibition's General Rules and Regulations

Any complaints regarding the services and/or concerning their invoicing, will only be considered by the Organizers if sent to them in writing within and no later than the end of the exhibition.
